This matter is before the Court on the motions of International Fund Management S.A., Luxembourg (International

Case: 8:05-cv-00292-LES-TDT Document #: 55 Date Filed: 12/02/2005 Page 2 of 7

Fund"), National Elevator Industry Pension Fund ("National Elevator"), and the Sumas Group ("Sumas") for consolidation, appointment as lead plaintiff and approval of selection of lead counsel. All three motions were filed on August 22, 2005. This Court has previously ordered the consolidation of these actions (Filing No. 54 in 8:05CV292; Filing No. 33 in 8:05CV318; Filing No. 51 in 8:05CV493). Now the Court will address the issues of appointing a lead plaintiff and approving the selection of lead counsel.

Selection of Lead Plaintiff

In selecting the co-lead plaintiff, Fed. R. Civ. P. 23 provides typicality and adequacy requirements that must be met for a party to be considered for appointment as lead plaintiff. In addition, the Private Securities Litigation Reform Act ("PSLRA") establishes a rebuttable presumption that "the person or group of persons" which otherwise meets the requirements of Rule 23 that "has the largest financial interest in the relief sought by the class" shall be appointed lead plaintiff. This presumption may be overcome only upon proof that the presumptively most adequate plaintiff will not fairly and adequately represent the class or is subject to unique defenses. 15 U.S.C. § 78u-4(a)(3)(B)(iii).

Three parties have sought to be named as lead plaintiff: International Fund, National Elevator and Sumas. Now

Case: 8:05-cv-00292-LES-TDT Document #: 55 Date Filed: 12/02/2005 Page 3 of 7

International Fund and National Elevator, (collectively the "Institutional Investor Group"), have elected to jointly prosecute this action against ConAgra and ask the Court to name them collectively as the co-lead plaintiff. Thus, the Court must choose between the Institutional Investor Group and Sumas for the position of lead plaintiff.

The PSLRA instructs courts to appoint as lead plaintiff the investor with the largest financial interest in the relief sought by the class. In this instance, the Institutional Investor Group clearly has a larger financial interest in the relief sought than does Sumas. The Institutional Investor Group bought 555,897 shares between September 18, 2003, and June 7, 2005 (the "Class Period"), and thereby claims losses totaling $2,399,802.16. In comparison, Sumas bought 4,300 shares during the Class Period and claims losses of $12,300.76. Thus, the Institutional Investors Group clearly have the largest financial stake in this litigation. Therefore, a rebuttable presumption exists that the Institutional Investors Group shall be appointed as co-lead plaintiff.

Sumas can rebut this presumption only by proof that the Institutional Investor Group will not fairly and adequately represent the class or is subject to unique defenses. In an effort to rebut this presumption, Sumas asserts that appointment of the Institutional Investors Group as co-lead plaintiff would expose "the class to logistical issues that would not arise if the lead plaintiff is not foreign." This bare assertion is ineffectual. Sumas fails to detail any logistical issues which could arise because one of the members of the Institutional Investors Group is foreign. This objection is found to be without merit.

Next, Sumas asserts that one of the members of Institutional Investors Group failed to clearly set forth all of the information necessary in a sworn, signed certification. It is unclear whether a putative lead plaintiff, such as National Elevator, which did not file a complaint, is subject to this requirement. The plain language of the statute states that the sworn, signed certification is to be "filed with the complaint." 15 U.S.C. § 78u-4 (a)(2)(A); Pirelli Armstrong Tire Corp. Retiree Med. Benefits Trust v. LaBranche & Co., 229 F.R.D. 395, 407, 2004 U.S. Dist. LEXIS 9571, at *36, n.18 (S.D.N.Y. 2004). Here, National Elevator has provided sufficient information to allow the Court to analyze its claimed financial interest. This objection is insufficient to overcome the Institutional Investor Group's rebuttable presumption as co-lead plaintiff as the party with the largest financial interest in the class.

Typicality and Adequacy

Institutional Investors Group fulfills the typicality and adequacy requirements of Rule 23(a). Typicality exists where the plaintiff's claims arise from the same series of events and are based upon the same legal theories as the claims of all the class members. It is the generalized nature of the claims asserted which determines whether the class representatives are typical. The typicality requirement does not require that the claims be identical.

The Institutional Investors Group satisfies the typicality requirement because, like all other class members, it: (1) purchased ConAgra securities during the Class Period at allegedly artificially inflated prices; and (2) suffered damages thereby. Thus, its claims are typical of those of other class members because its claims arise out of the same course of events.

Adequacy is evaluated by determining that (1) potential conflict between the proposed co-lead plaintiff and the class members is absent, and (2) the class representative has chosen counsel who is qualified, experienced and able to vigorously conduct the proposed litigation. Here, Institutional Investors Group is an adequate class representative because its interests are clearly aligned with the other class members in vigorously pursuing the claims against the defendants because of the defendants' alleged false statements to the market. There also is no evidence of any antagonism between Institutional Investors Group and other class members. Finally, its proposed counsel is highly qualified, experienced and capable of conducting this complex litigation in a professional manner. Thus, Institutional Investors Group fulfills both the typicality and adequacy requirements of Rule 23(a). Therefore, Institutional Investors Group will be appointed as co-lead plaintiff in this action.

Counsel

Having appointed Institutional Investors Group as co-lead plaintiff, the Court also will approve its selection of counsel. The statute states that the lead plaintiff shall, subject to court approval, select and retain counsel to represent the class it seeks to represent. 15 U.S.C. § 78u-4(a)(3)(B)(v). The lead plaintiff has selected Lerach Coughlin Stoia Geller Rudman & Robbins LLP ("Lerach Coughlin") and Murray, Frank & Sailer LLP to serve as co-lead counsel for the class and Abrahams, Kaslow & Cassman LLP, as liaison counsel. Lerach Coughlin has experience serving in the role of lead counsel, having been appointed as lead or co-lead counsel in several class actions including In re Enron Corp., Sec. Litig., 206 F.R.D. 427 (S.D. Tex. 2002). Likewise, Murray, Frank & Sailer LLP also is experienced in class action litigation. The Court approves the selections by the lead plaintiff for lead and liaison counsel. Accordingly,

Case: 8:05-cv-00292-LES-TDT Document #: 55 Date Filed: 12/02/2005 Page 7 of 7

IT IS ORDERED:

1) National Elevator and International Fund are appointed co-lead plaintiff for the class;

2) Lerach Coughlin Stoia Geller Rudman & Robbins LLP and Murray, Frank & Sailer LLP are appointed to serve as co-lead counsel for the class;

3) Abrahams, Kaslow & Cassman LLP is appointed as liaison counsel.

DATED this 2nd day of December, 2005.

25 Points and Authority relating to the Motion. In addition, the Court
26 heard oral argument on the Motion on September 26, 2005.

27 Accordingly, IT IS HEREBY ORDERED as follows:
28

2 1. Nextra, having the largest financial interest in this litigation
3 and otherwise satisfying the typicality and adequacy requirements of 4 Rule 23 of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure, is the most adequate
5 plaintiff pursuant to 15 U.S.C. § 78u-4(a)(3)(B)(iii)(I) and Section 6 27(a)(3)(B)(iii)(I) of the Securities Act, and no other movant has 7 offered the proof necessary pursuant to 15 U.S.C. § 78u-
8 4(a)(3)(B)(iii)(II) and Section 27(a)(3)(B)(iii)(II) of the Securities
9 Act to rebut the statutory presumption in favor of Nextra. Therefore,
10 Nextra is hereby appointed Lead Plaintiff for the Class in this action
11 and any subsequently consolidated or related actions.

12
13 2. Pursuant to 15 U.S.C. § 77z-1(a)(3)(B)(v), 15 U.S.C. § 78u-
14 4(a)(3)(B)(v) and Section 27(a)(3)(B)(v) of the Securities Act, Lead 15 Plaintiff's selection of lead counsel and liaison counsel is hereby 16 approved. The law firm of Schiffrin & Barroway, LLP is appointed as 17 Lead Counsel and the law firm of Lim, Ruger & Kim, LLP is appointed as 18 Liaison Counsel.

20 3. Lead Counsel shall have the authority to speak for all
21 plaintiffs and Class members in all matters regarding the litigation
22 including, but not limited to, pre-trial proceedings, motion practice,
23 discovery, and trial and settlement, and shall make all work assignments
24 in such a manner as to facilitate the orderly and efficient prosecution 25 of this litigation and to avoid duplicative or unproductive effort. In 26 connection with the foregoing, Lead Counsel shall have the following 27 responsibilities:

28 a. to brief and argue motions;

Case 2:05-cv-03966-MRP-VBK Document 56 Filed 11/08/2005 Page 4 of 5

1 b. to initiate and conduct discovery, including, without 2 limitation, coordination of discovery with defendants' counsel, the 3 preparation of written interrogatories, requests for admissions, and 4 requests for production of documents;

5 c. to direct and coordinate the examination of witnesses in 6 depositions;

7 d. to act as spokesperson at pretrial conferences;

8 e. to call and chair meetings of plaintiffs' counsel as 9 appropriate or necessary from time to time;

10 f. to initiate and conduct any settlement negotiations with 11 defendants' counsel;

12 g. to provide general coordination of the activities of 13 plaintiffs' counsel and to delegate work responsibilities to selected
14 counsel as may be required in such a manner as to lead to the orderly 15 and efficient prosecution of this litigation and to avoid duplication or 16 unproductive effort;

17 h. to consult with and employ experts;

18 i. to receive and review periodic time reports of all
19 attorneys on behalf of all plaintiffs to determine if the time is being 20 spent appropriately and for the benefit of plaintiffs; and

21 j. to perform such other duties as may be expressly authorized 22 by further order of this Court.

23
24 4. Lead Counsel shall be responsible for coordinating all
25 activities and appearances on behalf of the Class and for disseminating 26 notices and orders of this Court.

27
28 5. No motion, application or request for discovery shall be

1 served or filed, or other pre-trial proceedings initiated, on behalf of 2 Lead Plaintiff, except through Lead Counsel.

3
4 6. All notices, proposed orders, pleadings, motions,
5 discovery, and memoranda requiring a response in less than 30 days shall 6 be served upon Lead Counsel and defense counsel in electronic format and 7 emailed the day of filing with exhibits to follow by overnight mail
8 service, telecopy, or hand delivery. All other service shall take place
9 by regular mail.

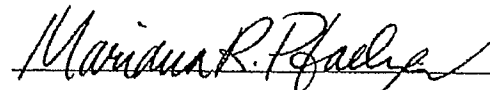

10
11 7. In accordance with the Court's personal procedures, counsel
12 shall submit two (2) courtesy copies of all filings to Chambers.

14 8. Defendants' counsel may rely upon all agreements made with 15 Lead Counsel, or other duly authorized representatives of Lead
16 Plaintiff.

18 9. This Order shall apply to each case subsequently filed in 19 this Court or transferred to this Court, unless a party objecting to the 20 consolidation of such case or to any other provision of this Order files
21 within ten (10) days after the date upon which a copy of this Order is 22 mailed to counsel for such party, an application for relief from this 23 Order or any provision herein and this Court grants such application.

24
25 IT IS SO ORDERED.

Presently before the Court are the motions by: (1) Metzler Investment GmbH, for account of its funds MI-Fonds 208 and MI-Fonds 705 ("Metzler Investment") and Bernard Drucker (collectively, the "NYCB Group"); (2) Carlos J. John W. Feil (collectively, the "Stevens Group"); (5) Vera Dalia, PhD, Anthony Curcio, and Genevieve DeCarlo (collectively, the "Dalia Group"); and (6) Philip A. Stewart, Joyce Stewart, and International Brotherhood of Electrical Workers Local 98 (the "Stewart Group") for an Order consolidating the above-referenced actions,<sup>1</sup> appointing lead plaintiff, and approving the selection of lead counsel. For the reasons stated below, the motion of the NYCB Group is granted in its entirety and the remaining motions are granted in part and denied in part.

BACKGROUND

The above-captioned actions were commenced as purported securities class actions on behalf of investors who purchased or acquired stock of New York Community Bancorp, Inc. ("NYCB") between June 27, 2003 and May 9, 2004 (the "Class Period"). The actions seek to recover damages suffered by members of the class as a result of Defendants' alleged violations of federal securities law. (Compl. ¶ 1.)<sup>2</sup> Specifically, the Complaint alleges that on the first day of the class period, NYCB announced that it had signed a definitive agreement with Roslyn Bancorp, Inc. ("Roslyn"), valued at $1.579 billion, whereby Roslyn would merge into NYCB and Roslyn shareholders would receive 0.75 shares of NYCB stock in exchange for each share of Roslyn stock. (Id. ¶ 24.) The Complaint further alleges that in connection with the merger, Defendants failed to disclose and misrepresented material adverse <sup>1</sup> At the time of the filing of the parties' motions, there were eight related cases pending before the Court. Since that time, three additional related cases have been filed, to wit, Lowinger v. New York Community Bancorp, Inc., 04 CV 5065, Strauss v. New York Community Bancorp, Inc., 04 CV 5101, and Tawil v. New York Community Bancorp, Inc., 04 CV 5128. These three related cases will be considered in the Court's decision.

<sup>2</sup> All citations to Complaint refer to the Complaint filed in Olsen v. New York Community Bancorp, Inc., 04 CV 4165, the first action filed in this Court.

Case 2:04-cv-04165-ADS-AKT Document 35 Filed 08/09/2005 Page 6 of 17

facts, which were known to Defendants or recklessly disregarded by them, which caused NYCB's stock to be artificially inflated. (See id. ¶¶ 25-57.)

The first action, Olsen v. New York Community Bancorp, Inc., 04 CV 4165, was filed on September 24, 2004. That same day, plaintiffs' counsel published notice of the pendency of the action over the PR News Wire. The notice advised members of the proposed class of their right to move before this Court to serve as lead plaintiff(s) on or before November 23, 2004. (See, e.g., Decl. of Aaron Brody, dated Nov. 23, 2004, Ex. A.)

Presently pending in the Eastern District of New York are eleven separate related securities fraud class actions. Plaintiffs in six of these actions have filed motions to consolidate and for appointment as lead plaintiff. Defendants take no position with regard to the respective motions.

DISCUSSION

I. The Motions to Consolidate are Granted

Pursuant to the Private Securities Litigation Reform Act of 1995 (the "PSLRA"), the Court must decide any motion to consolidate prior to deciding a motion for appointment of lead plaintiff in a proposed securities class action. See 15 U.S.C. § 78u-4(a)(3)(B)(ii). Rule 42 of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure provides that "[w]hen actions involving a common question of law or fact are pending before the court, it may order a joint hearing or trial of any or all the matters in issue in the actions; [and] it may order all the actions consolidated." Fed. R. Civ. P. 42(a).

Here, the factual allegations in each of the above-referenced actions are virtually identical and, as a result, the same discovery will be relevant to all of the actions. Several of the actions, however, have alleged slightly different class periods and name different individual defendants. Moreover, some of the actions assert claims by former Roslyn shareholders pursuant to the Securities Act of 1933 (the "Securities Act"), some assert claims by persons who purchased NYCB stock on the open market pursuant to the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 (the "Exchange Act"), and some assert claims pursuant to both statutes. None of these minor differences, however, which can be resolved when the appointed lead plaintiff files a consolidated complaint, detracts from the overwhelming factual and legal similarities among the cases. See, e.g., Dolan v. Axis Capital Holdings Ltd., Nos. 04 Civ. 8564, 04 Civ. 8810, 2005 WL 883008, at * 2 (S.D.N.Y. Apr. 13, 2005) (consolidating cases where one case asserted claims against additional defendant and claims "overlapp[ed]"); In re Olsten Corp. Sec. Litig., 3 F. Supp. 2d 286, 292-93 (E.D.N.Y. 1998) (consolidating cases alleging different class periods and slightly different facts; "the facts and legal issues need not be identical to warrant consolidation"), opinion adhered to on reconsideration, 181 F.R.D. 218 (E.D.N.Y. 1998). Moreover, it is apparent that no party will suffer prejudice from consolidation, a fact confirmed by the complete absence of any opposition thereto. Finally, it is equally apparent that consolidation would significantly enhance judicial economy. There is, in short, nothing to be gained by requiring this matter to proceed as eleven separate cases. Accordingly, the actions involve "common issues of law and fact" and are hereby consolidated pursuant to Rule 42(a).

II. Motions for Appointment of Lead Plaintiff

A. Procedure under the PSLRA

The PSLRA sets forth the procedure governing the appointment of a lead plaintiff in securities class actions. As an initial matter, the plaintiff who files the first action must publish notice to the class within twenty (20) days of filing the action, informing class members of their right to file a motion for appointment as lead plaintiff. 15 U.S.C. § 78u-4(a)(3)(A)(I). Here, notice of the first action was published on September 24, 2004.

Next, the PSLRA provides that within ninety (90) days after publication of notice, the Court shall consider any motion made by a purported class member and shall appoint as lead plaintiff the “member or members of the purported plaintiff class that the court determines to be most capable of adequately representing the interests of class members.” Id. § 78u-4(a)(3)(B).

There is a rebuttable presumption that the “most adequate plaintiff” is the person or group of persons that –

- (aa) has either filed the complaint or made a motion in response to [the statutorily mandated] notice . . . ;
- (bb) in the determination of the court, has the largest financial interest in the relief sought by the class; and
- (cc) otherwise satisfies the requirements of Rule 23 of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure.

Id. § 78u-4(a)(3)(B)(iii)(I). This presumption “may be rebutted only upon proof by a member of the purported plaintiff class that the presumptively most adequate plaintiff-(aa) will not fairly and adequately protect the interests of the class; or (bb) is subject to unique defenses that render such plaintiff incapable of adequately representing the class.” Id. § 78u-4(a)(3)(B)(iii)(II).

B. Application to the Present Cases

Plaintiffs in six of the above-referenced cases filed competing motions for appointment as lead plaintiff. Upon review of the competing motions, the Stevens Group subsequently withdrew its application. The Dalia and Stewart Groups failed to file any opposition papers in response to the other applicants’ motions and, thus, have presumably withdrawn their applications as well.<sup>3</sup> Thus, the only three groups under consideration are the NYCB Group, the Lee Group, and Dr. Schnapp.

All three groups have satisfied the first criterion necessary for a finding that it is the most adequate plaintiff in that each has timely filed a motion in response to the notice of the first filed action. Id. § 78u-4(a)(3)(B)(iii)(I)(aa). The Court must then determine which group holds the largest financial interest in the relief sought. Id. § 78u-4(a)(3)(B)(iii)(I)(bb).

All three groups have submitted affidavits along with their papers in support of their respective claims of financial losses. The NYCB Group purchased or otherwise acquired 106,000 shares of NYCB stock, incurring an estimated loss of $905,647.65. (See Decl. of Peter E. Seidman, dated Nov. 23, 2004, Exs. C and D.) The Lee Group purchased 57,116 shares of NYCB stock during the class period and suffered estimated losses of $451,547. (See Decl. of Aaron L. Brody, dated Nov. 23, 2004, Exs. B and C.) Finally, Dr. Schnapp acquired 59,432 shares of NYCB through the merger of NYCB and Roslyn and 780 shares through dividend reinvestment for a total estimated loss of $605,520.<sup>4</sup> (See Decl. of William Berbarduci, dated Nov. 23, 2004, Ex. B; Dr. Schnapp Reply Mem. at 2 n.3.) Thus, at first glance, the NYCB Group appears to have sustained the largest financial loss. Both Dr. Schnapp and the Lee Group advance several arguments, however, as to why the NYCB Group should be disqualified from

<sup>3</sup> The Dalia Group claimed a financial loss of $357,715.40 and the Stewart Group estimated its loss at $450,971.13. As will be discussed infra, because the Court finds that the NYCB Group, with an estimated loss of $905,647.65, has the largest financial interest in the relief sought, and satisfies the other requirements under the PSLRA, the Court finds that the NYCB Group is the most adequate plaintiff.

<sup>4</sup> Dr. Schnapp initially asserted a loss of $365,129, but later changed his loss based upon a revised calculation to allegedly reflect the methods used by the other movants. (Dr. Schnapp Mem. in Further Supp. at 1 n.1.)

lead plaintiff contention. The Court will address each one in turn.

1. The Validity of the NYCB Group

Dr. Schnapp argues that the NYCB Group used an improper calculation in arriving at its estimated loss. Dr. Schnapp's argument, however, is based on his assertion that the NYCB Group is improperly comprised of two movants and that viewing each movant's loss separately, Dr. Schnapp's loss is greater than each individual movant. At this juncture, the Court need not resolve whether the approach used by the NYCB Group in estimating its financial loss is appropriate because as discussed below, the Court finds that the NYCB Group's inclusion of two distinct members is proper. Thus, under either method for calculating loss, the NYCB's loss, taken in the aggregate, is substantially greater than that of Dr. Schnapp.<sup>5</sup>

Dr. Schnapp argues that the NYCB Group is "nothing more than an amalgamation of unaffiliated and unrelated class members thrown together to try to artificially create the movant with the 'largest financial interest.'" (Dr. Schnapp Reply Mem. at 5.) The NYCB Group is comprised of an institutional movant, to wit, Metzler Investment, and an individual movant, to wit, Bernard Drucker.

The PSLRA states that the court "must appoint as lead plaintiff the member or members of the purported plaintiff class that the court determines to be most capable of

<sup>5</sup> The NYCB Group asserts its financial loss as totaling $905,647.65, based upon the "mean trading price" of its stock during the 90-day period beginning on the date on which the information correcting the misstatement or omission was disseminated to the market. 15 U.S.C. § 78u-4(e)(1). Dr. Schnapp contends that the NYCB Group erroneously performed this calculation based upon 90 calendar days, as opposed to 90 trading days, the latter of which excludes weekends and legal holidays. Thus, under Dr. Schnapp's method, the NYCB Group's loss, viewed in the aggregate, would actually be higher, at $1,010,580. (See Dr. Schnapp's Mem. in Further Supp. at 4.)

adequately representing the interests of class members,” 15 U.S.C. § 78u-4(a)(3)(B) (emphasis added), but does not specify whether the members must be related in some fashion in order to qualify as an appropriate lead plaintiff group. As recently articulated by Judge Scheindlin:

Courts are divided on the issue. Two cases in the Southern District of New York forcefully assert that unrelated investors may not band together for the purpose of achieving lead plaintiff status, reasoning that investors with no prior relationship will not be as effective at controlling class counsel as would a single institutional entity. Other cases, comprising the majority view, hold that unrelated investors may aggregate under certain circumstances. One court even goes so far as to argue that “a greater number of plaintiffs allows them, as a group, to wield more control over counsel.” For the most part, in the absence of explicit limits the lead plaintiff decision must be made on a case-by-case basis, taking account of the unique circumstances of each case. Generally, a lead plaintiff group should be held to a reasonable number, so that the group does not become too unwieldy. This logic eschews a hard-and-fast rule, instead adopting a rule of reason along with the general presumption that unrelated groups with more than five members are too large to work effectively.

In re eSpeed, Inc. Sec. Litig., No. 05 Civ 2091, 2005 WL 1653933, at *2 (S.D.N.Y. July 13, 2005) (citations omitted).

Many courts have interpreted the PSLRA to favor institutional investors serving as lead plaintiff. See id. (“An institutional investor with substantial losses functioning as lead plaintiff is less likely to cause a flurry of otherwise pointless activity in the form of disputes within the lead plaintiff group.”) (citation and internal quotation marks omitted) (collecting cases); Dolan, 2005 WL 883008, at *3 (stating that PSLRA was designed to encourage institutional investors which have “significant holdings in issuers [and] whose interest are more strongly aligned with the class of shareholders”). Here, given the PSLRA’s preference for institutional investors, and given that the NYCB Group consists of a manageable number of members, the Court finds that the two member NYCB Group is a valid group under the PSLRA. See In re Star Gas Sec. Litig., No. 04 Civ. 1766, 2005 WL 818617, at *5 (D. Conn. Apr. 8, 2005) (“The majority of courts considering the issue have taken an intermediate position, allowing a group of unrelated investors to serve as lead plaintiffs when it would be most beneficial to the class under the circumstances of a given case.”); Pirelli Armstrong Tire Corp. v. LaBranche & Co., No. 03 Civ. 8264, 2004 WL 1179311, at *22 (S.D.N.Y. May 27, 2004) (noting that a co-lead plaintiff structure will help to ensure that adequate resources and experience are available to the prospective class in the prosecution of the class action); Laborers Local 1298 Pension Fund v. Campbell Soup Co., No. 00 Civ. 152, 2000 WL 486956, at *3 (D. N.J. Apr. 24, 2000) (appointing three separate movants as co-lead plaintiffs and anticipating that each party would bring a unique perspective to the litigation); In re Oxford Health Plans, Inc. Sec. Litig., 182 F.R.D. 42, 45-46 (S.D.N.Y. 1998) (naming group of three unrelated individual investors as co-lead plaintiff with an institutional investor). Thus, viewing the NYCB Group’s loss in the aggregate, it has the largest financial interest.

2. The NYCB Group has Standing to Sue

Dr. Schnapp and the Lee Group contend that Metzler Investment, the institutional member of the NYCB Group, lacks standing to assert violations of the Exchange Act because it is merely an investment manager which did not purchase any NYCB stock for its own account but rather managed the investments of its clients’ assets. “Generally, a client’s grant of authority to an investment manager to purchase stock on his or her behalf does not also confer authority to commence suit on his or her behalf.” Weinberg v. Atlas Air Worldwide Holdings, Inc., 216 F.R.D. 248, 255 (S.D.N.Y. 2003) (citing Smith v. Suprema Specialties, 206 F. Supp. 2d 627, 634-35 (D. N.J. 2002)). "However, when the investment advisor is also the attorney-in-fact for its clients with unrestricted decision making authority, the investment advisor is considered the 'purchaser' under the federal securities laws with standing to sue in its own name." Id.; see also In re eSpeed, Inc. Sec. Litig., 2005 WL 1653933, at *1 ("In order for an investment advisor to attain standing on behalf of investors[,] the transactions in question must have been executed as if by a single person. Moreover, the advisor must be the attorney in fact for his clients, and he must be granted both unrestricted decision-making authority and the specific right to recover on behalf of his clients.") (citations omitted).

Case 2:04-cv-04165-ADS-AKT Document 35 Filed 08/09/2005 Page 13 of 17

Here, Metzler Investment has proffered the signed declaration of Marlies Pauly, an authorized signatory of Metzler Investment, stating that Metzler Investment is a fund management company that controls, manages, and is attorney-in-fact for each of its funds. (Third Decl. of Peter E. Seidman, dated Dec. 15, 2004, Ex. B. ¶ 2.) The declaration further avers that:

Metzler [Investment] is also contractually authorized to undertake and act on behalf of these funds in any legal action on their behalf, including serving as lead plaintiff in this action. These funds' respective shareholders have each entered into a contract with Metzler [Investment] explicitly authorizing Metzler [Investment] to control all investments and to commence litigation on behalf of the funds. Accordingly, Metzler [Investment] has full and complete authority and discretion to purchase and sell securities for each of these funds, and to institute legal action on their behalf, including serving as lead plaintiff in this action.

(Id. ¶ 4.) Metzler Investment also submits a portion of the contracts it entered into with each of the shareholders of the funds, which provides that Metzler Investment "is authorized to purchase assets with the money invested by the shareholders, to sell those assets and to otherwise invest the proceeds; it is further authorized to take all legal actions that arise from the management of the assets.” (Id. Ex. D and attachments thereto.) Based on this proffer, the Court finds that Metzler Investment has demonstrated that it has complete investment authority over its trades and is agent and attorney-in-fact with full power and authority to act in connection with its investments. Thus, the Court finds that Metzler Investment does have standing to prosecute its Exchange Act claims asserted here.

3. Applying the Requirements of Rule 23

Having established that the NYCB Group has the greatest financial loss, and is not otherwise disqualified from serving as lead plaintiff, the next question is whether the NYCB Group “otherwise meets the requirements of Rule 23(a).” 15 U.S.C. § 78u-4(a)(3)(B)(iii)(I)(cc). Rule 23(a) sets forth four prerequisites to be considered in evaluating the propriety of class certification, to wit, numerosity, commonality, typicality, and adequacy. Fed. R. Civ. P. 23(a). Only the typicality and adequacy criteria are relevant to the selection of lead plaintiff. See Dolan, 2005 WL 883008, at *4; In re eSpeed, Inc. Sec. Litig., 2005 WL 1653933, at *5.

Typicality is satisfied where the claims arise from the same course of events and each class member makes similar legal arguments to prove the defendant’s liability. See, e.g., Robinson v. Metro-North Commuter R.R. Co., 267 F.3d 147, 155 (2d Cir. 2001). The NYCB Group easily meets this requirement because the NYCB Group, like the other purported class members in this action, alleges that it purchased or otherwise acquired NYCB stock during the class period and was injured by false and misleading representations made by defendants in violation of both the Exchange Act and the Securities Act. Because the NYCB Group consists of both a movant who acquired his shares of NYCB stock through NYCB’s merger with Roslyn and a movant who acquired its shares through the open market, all available legal theories are represented. Although the Stevens Group suggests that the Court appoint two separate lead plaintiffs with separate counsel – one for the claims arising out of the Securities Act and one for the claims arising out of the Exchange Act<sup>6</sup> – the Court declines to do so. This argument is based on the premise that the two movants who make up the NYCB Group do not individually possess the greatest financial loss. As discussed previously, however, the Court has already found the NYCB Group to be a valid group which may be viewed in the aggregate. Moreover, as the parties concede, there is no precedent under which the Court is required to appoint separate lead plaintiffs for different claims, cf. Hevesi v. Citigroup Inc., 366 F.3d 70, 82 (2d Cir. 2004) (stating that the PSLRA does not require district to choose lead plaintiff with standing to sue on every available cause of action), and there has been no showing that the NYCB Group, the presumptive lead plaintiff, cannot vigorously pursue both claims. The NYCB Group therefore meets the Rule 23 typicality requirement for purposes of the lead plaintiff inquiry.

The NYCB Group also meets the Rule 23 requirement that the lead plaintiff have the capacity to adequately represent the class. The adequacy requirement is satisfied where “(1) class counsel is qualified, experienced, and generally able to conduct the litigation; (2) the class members’ interests are not antagonistic to one another; and (3) the class has a sufficient interest in the outcome of the case to ensure vigorous advocacy.” See, e.g., In re eSpeed, Inc. Sec. Litig., 2005 WL 1653933, at *5 (citing In re Initial Public Offering Sec. Litig., 214 F.R.D. 117, 121 (S.D.N.Y. 2002) (considering adequacy in the lead plaintiff appointment context)). The NYCB Group’s counsel, Milberg Weiss Bershad & Schulman LLP, has extensive experience litigating securities class actions and, therefore, has the ability to conduct the litigation effectively.

<sup>6</sup> (See Stevens and Feil Response at 2-4; Dr. Schnapp Reply at 6-8.)

Case 2:04-cv-04165-ADS-AKT Document 35 Filed 08/09/2005 Page 16 of 17

Moreover, there is no evidence to suggest that the members of the NYCB Group have interests that are antagonistic to each other or to other members of the putative class. Finally, the NYCB Group has already displayed a willingness to vigorously pursue its claims and has enough of an interest in the outcome of the litigation to ensure that it will continue to do so. Thus, the NYCB Group is an adequate class representative.

Thus, because the NYCB Group has satisfied the three prong test of the PSLRA, to wit, the NYCB Group has submitted a timely motion requesting to be named lead plaintiff, it is the entity with the greatest financial interest in the relief sought by the class, and otherwise meets the requirements of Rule 23(a), the NYCB Group is presumptively the most adequate plaintiff. 15 U.S.C. § 78u-4(a)(3)(B)(iii)(I). To rebut this presumption, as noted previously, the other movants must offer proof that the NYCB plaintiffs “will not fairly and adequately protect the interests of the class; or [are] subject to unique defenses that render [them] incapable of adequately representing the class.” Id. § 78u-4(a)(3)(B)(iii)(II). They have failed to do so. Accordingly, the Court appoints the NYCB Group as lead plaintiff.

III. Motions for Selection of Lead Counsel

The NYCB Group further moves to designate Milberg Weiss Bershad & Schulman LLP as lead counsel. The PSLRA provides that the “most adequate plaintiff shall, subject to the approval of the court, select and retain counsel.” 15 U.S.C. § 78u-4(a)(3)(B)(v). Resumes submitted by the firm indicate that it has successfully prosecuted numerous securities fraud class actions and is otherwise well qualified and free of conflicts. Accordingly, the Court appoints Milberg Weiss Bershad & Schulman LLP as lead counsel.

CONCLUSION

For the foregoing reasons, the motion by the NYCB Group is granted in its entirety. The Court appoints the NYCB Group as lead plaintiff and Milberg Weiss Bershad & Schulman LLP as lead counsel. The other applicants' motions are granted to the extent they seek consolidation but are otherwise denied. The NYCB Group shall serve and file a consolidated complaint within thirty (30) days of this Order.

The actions are hereby consolidated under the caption "In re New York Community Bancorp, Inc. Securities Litigation." All relevant documents and submissions shall be maintained as one file under case number 04 CV 4165. The Clerk of the Court is hereby directed to close the other ten actions.
